

3.13 Natural History Gallery

Walk-Through Cave

Sponsorship
Required:
$30,000

The only living mammals endemic to the Cayman Islands – bats – are the highlight of this theatrical yet realistic recreation of life within a terrestrial cave in this walk-through corner diorama. Models of cave creatures are hidden within the darkened cavern, and interactive elements engage visitors as they pass through. Two interpretive panels present information about cave environments, offering a truly engaging educational experience.

NATIONAL MUSEUM

Caymanian, Exactly